

teachers of Yazoo. And moreover, they have made a valuable change in the mode of giving information. Heretofore it has generally been the custom for teachers to instruct as to what they know, but the new order of this school seems to be to tell what they don't know. And certainly they are to be highly commended for this, because all will agree that that is much the largest portion of their stock of knowledge.

We shall continue our remarks upon these Benton resolutions until we get done.

Positively a Mistake.

We are requested by Mr. E. G. Harris (Secretary) to correct what he says was an error in printing one of the "democratic" resolutions of the "democratic meeting" lately held at Benton. The 9th resolution, which says that measures similar to the Standing Army Bill had been before recommended by "our patriotic President", should read "by our patriot Presidents."

Well, now we have corrected the error; and if that is not jumping out of the frying-pan into the fire then we give it up. In the name of all that is historical, when did any one, much less all of our "patriot Presidents", recommend such a horrid, infamous, detestable and illegal measure as this Standing Army Bill? Will Judge Battelle, or some other Judge, or some other man be so good as to tell us. The Benton Board of "Democratic" Teachers, now open their treasures of wisdom and inform the world that our former Presidents (all and each of them, according to the resolution as amended) have heretofore recommended such measures as this Army Bill, which Van Buren himself, now at the eleventh hour, says is unconstitutional!!! Was ever the common sense of an intelligent community so insulted by a company of upstart wisacres setting themselves up for politicians? But there were some intelligent men at that meeting, and we ask them if they are not ashamed? We ask the President of the meeting if he is not ashamed to see his name stuck to the tail of such a mass of stupid political slang and slander as these resolutions!

Thunder! Thunder!!!

Don't you hear it roar! Oh the people, the people, these wicked people! How they do echo!!!

We knew that the roar from Louisiana was only the beginning of the fall thunders. But now don't it roar finally.

Kentucky has beat the world. The way whigs have done things there is perfectly sinful. They have no more compassion upon the poor loco-focos than Harrison had upon some certain subjects eighteen or twenty years ago.

Indiana has gone it Hoosier like, all together. They have not left loco-focos enough for the requisite compliment of Sub-Treasurers. Van Buren ought to issue orders against such monopoly forthwith.

But Alabama has beat herself. She has done what no man thought to be morally possible. She was the strongest and most certain Van Buren State in the Union except New Hampshire and perhaps Missouri. And now where is she. Well done Alabama!

Old North Carolina Forever!

See how beautiful she looks! NINE THOUSAND ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-THREE WHIG MAJORITY!!!

She voted for Van Buren to put him in the office he now holds, but behold what she now says of him! Stand around here States and salute Old North Carolina. That's what we call "redeemed, regenerated and dis-thralled" in earnest.

General Wissett.

This old veteran of early times excited a thrill of feeling at the Benton Whig Festival. In him we had a witness—a living witness who could stand before us, face to face, and tell us something about the wars of the west. Not a man who heard this gray-headed veteran officer recount the dangers of the Harrison wars, could get his own consent to refrain from hissing into contempt the notorious and black hearted slanders which party infatuation would hurl against him. He told the stories of Gen. Harrison's cowardice, to the heart's content of every loco-foco who heard him. We do not know the politics of Gen. Wissett; he said nothing upon that subject. He only told the plain simple stories of Harrison's cowardice. Nor did he speak from report or hearsay, he told the people of what he saw and heard—of the tolls he passed through while serving as an officer under him, and of the position and conduct, in the several battles, of his General.

Honor, however, to the brave! And let every base traitor of the fair fame of our country's hero, be spit upon in contempt, by every freeman. Kick the base slanderer out of the world!

Great South-Western Convention.

The great South-Western Whig Convention lately held at Nashville, was the greatest, the largest and the most powerful political meeting ever held in the United States. Only think of FORTY THOUSAND people assembled in one meeting. The like never was known before. To describe the doings of the Convention or to speak of what was done, is out of our power. It would take more room than we can devote to it, and were we to try it we should leave it half finished. The people were in council making "daring efforts" to put down a corrupt and dangerous administration and reform the National Councils. Henry Clay and other distinguished men from all parts of the country were there.

Will the reader pause here one moment and gaze upon the present appearance of the country. Who ever supposed that the country would present such a spectacle as it now does! Political meetings of a hundred, a thousand, ten thousand, twenty, thirty and forty thousand are constantly seen in every part of the country. You can scarcely point to a town or village in the Union but you look upon the scene of one of those popular assemblies, either just passed or now about to take place. And why was this never so before? Why is it so now? Why all this noise and bustle? Why these vast crowds of people and this volcanic thunder and roar of political excitement? It's the mighty avalanche of a free people's discontent. It is the mighty murmurings and yet mightier determinations of a Republican People who have been injured and insulted by their own public servants. It is the republican cry of reform, and the shout of millions in the certain prospect of a deliverance which they have pledged each other to achieve with their own hands. And yet is it not strange, that in the midst of this rolling tornado, which is sweeping over the country like an elemental torrent, rolling the reformation and fixing the elements of reform steadfast in the deep foundations of the people's will, that there is still seen amongst us a puny band, upheld by these same public servants, striving with the strength of a Lilliputian to beat back the earthquake and stay the determinations of a people who are, and who know they are, free! Is it not a singular commentary upon the strange and curious notions of men! As well might titled royal imbecility endeavor to tame the spirit of freedom, as for the wasted and wasting remnants of Van Burenism to try to stay the present political reformation in its course.

Whig State Convention.

The Warren County Tippecanoe Club recommend that the whigs of Mississippi hold a State Convention on the 5th Oct next. The idea is a good one. We hope the suggestion will be generally responded to and that the whigs will assemble at the place indicated (Jackson) by the acre.

To insure the success of the people against the great chartered monopoly it is only necessary for the whigs to arouse themselves diligence and perseverance. Let the people wake up and see the contest that is going on and they cannot—they will not longer sustain the abominations that make up the political doings of the president and his party. For years they have been struggling to get personal possession of the public money. They have got it and now their efforts are as strenuous and unyielding to keep it. This is the sum and substance of their warfare. Whigs get up and go to work as you have not worked before. Throw light and information amongst the people. See the efforts of the office holders and their partisans. They struggle as for life. Deception is their chief instrument of warfare. To keep the real issue from before the minds of the people is their great effort. Then stir up whigs and let the people have light. Who responds to the call for a State Convention! The following is from the Vicksburg Whig of the 4th inst.

At a meeting of the Tippecanoe Club of Warren County held at the Log Cabin in Vicksburg, on the 31st of July, the following preamble and Resolutions introduced by G. S. Yarger, Esq. were unanimously adopted. Whereas the present condition of our country calls loudly for the most strenuous exertions of every patriot to sustain and uphold the republican principles which our whig ancestors bequeathed to us, as a most valued heritage. And whereas the course which has been pursued by the present Administration, upon numerous measures, deeply vitally important to the agricultural, commercial, mechanical and laboring interests of the country has been such as to entail the most serious and pernicious evils upon the above named classes, reducing we might almost say, to beggary and want whole communities, prostrating the best interests of the country at home, and its commercial prosperity abroad, and inflicting on the laboring classes, by the war waged against the currency and the experiment of the Sub-Treasury the most hopeless penalty. And whereas it is confidently believed that the election of William Henry Harrison, a long and well tried Republican, and a faithful, pure, unassailable public servant, will alone save our country from the effects of present and impending evils, and from the blind misrule of men, who, regardless of the true interest and happiness of the people, seek alone to aggrandize themselves at the public expense. And whereas to effectuate and successfully carry out our principles, unity and concert of action is absolutely necessary. Therefore Resolved, That we respectfully recommend to the Whigs of every county in the State of Mississippi to appoint a suitable number of delegates to assemble in convention at the city of Jackson on Monday the 5th of October next, (the day being the anniversary of the glorious battle of the Thames) for the sole purpose of deliberating upon the condition of the country and the necessary measures to insure concert of action among the Whigs of Mississippi at the approaching Presidential contest.

Van Buren Proceedings—Read it! The western Van Buren papers have been publishing a certificate purporting to contain the views of ten citizens of Warren County, who renounce whig principles and declare for the Sub Treasury party.

The whole thing is proven to be a falsehood by a publication of nineteen of the most prominent citizens of Warren, from whose published card the following is an extract. We are acquainted with the ten persons whose names have been used. Not one of them has ever been known here as a Whig. Two of them are boys. Two others say that they signed the certificate in jest, for the purpose of ascertaining the politics of Benjamin Longnecker, and without any intention that it would be published, and Mr. Longnecker himself certifies as you see, that if his name appeared on it, he was imposed on by Mr. Robt. He cannot read and says that he never would have signed it, had he fully known its contents. What could have been Mr. Robt's motive for making statements so calculated to mislead the public, we leave to that public to determine. The cherch to which he belongs and which numbers among its members many worthy men of political opinions has appointed a committee to investigate the matter, and try him for an intentional violation of truth.

Distressing Accident.

On Monday morning last as HENRY H. FRANK, Esq. was coming from his plantation to this city, his horse took fright and ran away with the carriage, the wheel of which, struck a stump, and threw Mr. F. about 30 feet & killed him instantly. Mr. F. has left many warm and ardent friends to lament his untimely death.

The Mississippi publishes letters from almost all parts of the state which say that Van Burenism is flourishing most gloriously. We'd like to see one from hereabouts on that subject.

Three hundred and thirty citizens of Claiborne County, in a public call, in the Port Gibson Correspondent requests the people of the county to meet and form a Tippecanoe Club.

County Treasurer.

An election was held in this county on Monday and Tuesday last for County Treasurer. The vote at this box, stands as follows:

POSTSCRIPT.

The Grand Gulf Advertiser of the 28th ult. gives the following news from North Carolina. NORTH CAROLINA.—We have been politely handed the Georgia Constitutionalist of the 20th inst. which contains returns from thirty four counties in this state. In these counties, Saunders, democratic candidate for governor, has above 3000 majority over Morehead, whig. The majority of counties to hear from, are said to be democratic, and we have no doubt Saunders is elected by 3 or 4000 votes. No doubt we shall have a majority in the legislature, which will ensure the election of two U. S. senators.

("Tell Chapman he must Crow.")

The same paper of the same date shouts over the "victory" in Alabama, and closes with this triumphant exclamation.—"So we go."

Last year you had in the Alabama Legislature 47 majority on joint ballot, now you have 13 only, so you do go.

Tribute of Respect.

At a called meeting of the "Manchester Fusiliers," held at the Armory on Wednesday, the 18th inst., the following resolutions were offered by F. W. Quackenbush, Esq. and unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, the painful duty devolves upon us, of recording another void in our ranks, created by the sudden and untimely end of one of our most valued comrades and cherished friends.

Be it therefore Resolved, That in the decease of HENRY H. FRANK, late a member and officer of this corps, we have sustained a heart-rending calamity, and an irreparable loss.

Resolved, That in the expression of our deep respect for the memory of our departed friend and brother, we can faintly portray these characteristic virtues which alone so resplendently in all his walks of life, and were so eminently calculated to perfect the gentleman and adorn the citizen.

Resolved, That as an additional mark of respect for the memory of the deceased, we wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of 30 days.

Resolved, That a committee of three members, of this corps, be appointed to address a letter of condolence to the near relatives of the deceased, accompanied with a copy of the above resolutions.

Whereupon, the Chair appointed the following gentlemen said committee: F. W. Quackenbush, T. J. Jennings, and James Hayden.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the "Yazoo City Whig."

DIED.

In this county, on the 12th inst., JAMES, infant son of James W. and Jane H. Casack, aged one year and two months.

Death with his meagre person and time-worn brow, hath again intruded himself among us, and snatched from the arms of a doating mother, her fondest joy, and blighted the brightest hopes of a father.—Like the morning rose-bud, ere it arrives at maturity, is plucked from its parent earth by the Virgin's hand, to beautify and adorn a circle more pure and bright. Thus hath faded from the horizon of a mother's hopes, one bright star whose beams so oft have lighted up and made glad the palace of her soul. But while we drop the sympathetic tear over the grave of our little friend, may we not indulge in the thought that this little star has only gone to add lustre to a brighter Constellation; and that when the day of final retribution shall have come, then will he rise from his dust and corruption, clothed in immortal brightness a fit heir for Heaven and glory.

"Scarcely had the dawn of life begun, Ere he measured out his span."
